BETRAYED!

- Town loses fight to save hospital beds
- Campaigners 'taken for a ride' claim

HOSPITAL bed campaigners in Axminster will demand a public inquiry after the town was "betrayed not once, but twice" in less than a week as NHS hospital beds were ripped away.

MP Neil Parish has confirmed he is looking for a way to appeal the decision.

Axminster Hospital Action Group (AHAG) and Axminster Hospital League of Friends (LoF) have fought on two fronts; bringing in-patient beds back following the temporary closure in January; securing the long-term future of the beds.

by Anders Larsson

Good news came when it was announced that the temporary closure would be lifted at the end of this month.

But hopes were deflated last Tuesday when reopening was postponed by Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust (NDHT) - and the double blow was completed last Thursday afternoon when NHS Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group's (NEW Devon CCG) decided to permanently concentrate the number of in-patient beds in East Devon to three hospitals, leaving Axminster with none.

Blatantly ignored

A joint AHAG and LoF statement said: "Axminster has been betrayed and let down not once but twice, once by NDHT and then by the CCG."

"The CCG established a Stakeholder reference group and asked it to consider and recommend alternatives to the Transforming Community Services document."

"The group met regularly and worked tirelessly to deliver robust and well considered recommendations to the CCG, which delivered the cost saving they were looking for whilst giving the community the services they themselves wanted. The proposals as positioned would have given the CCG breathing space to look at the base need for beds whilst negotiating the real requirement through the new service provider, the Royal Devon & Exeter NHS Trust (RD&E), who will undoubtedly be on board from next April.

"The CCG have blatantly ignored the recommendations and driven through their preferred route for Using Nutrition to support those with cancer

Thursday 23rd July 2.30pm at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre

WISHING Well, our newly re-launched cancer support group, meets weekly at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre on Thursday afternoons from 2.30-4.30pm.

This Thursday 23rd July at 2.30pm we are lucky enough to be welcoming Elizabeth Bray, a registered nutritional therapist who is going to talk about the ways in which healthy nutrition can help you to maintain optimum health. Elizabeth, who is the regional co-ordinator for and member of the British Association for Applied Nutrition and Nutritional Therapy, has previously supported people at the well-known Penny Brohn Centre in Bristol. She will be bringing some useful recipe booklets to give out during the talk. This talk is free to anyone affected by cancer (past or present) and their carers.

Elizabeth's talk is the last in a series of informative talks and we will be continuing with these in September. Please let us know if you would like us to keep you informed about future events.

We are incredibly grateful to have just received some funding from MacMillan which will enable us to offer free complementary therapies to anyone affected by cancer and their carers. We have a huge range of therapies available at the Centre. Please see our website or pop in for more information about what's on offer and how it could help you.

We also have a wide range of books and literature which may help those experiencing cancer. These are in our well-stocked library and are available to borrow anytime.

If you are interested in helping to run this group or would like to support it in any way we'd love to hear from you. The group meets at the Axminster Health and Wellbeing Centre, Hanover House, Chard Street, Axminster. Call 01297 32331 for more information or to book a place or just come along on the day.

'We have been taken for a ride' by 'inept CCG'

■ FEELINGS of disappointment, frustration and of being taken for a ride have washed over us the last few days.

Having fought against the Transforming Community Services' proposal from the Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG) last September, it was they who commissioned a locality wide Stakeholder Reference Group in January to look at alternatives to their original proposals.

Over a period of five months representatives in the form of councillors, GPs, League of Friends, Patient Participation Group and others, along with members from the CCG, debated and considered many alternatives.

The final recommendations were deeply considered regarding both financial and personnel implications, allowing the CCG to save their £500,000 whilst giving the community what they desired. At no time did the senior members of the CCG attend the meetings and showed no interest in the progress whatsoever. It therefore leads to them having no real understanding of the content of the proposals nor the strength of feeling from the group as a whole.

This behaviour epitomises the lack of regard the senior echelon of the CCG have for the community, sitting in their ivory towers making decisions without any consideration for the community as a whole. NHS England have clearly stated that Governing Bodies must engage more with the communities. This doesn't mean paying lip service to it with the sole intention of driving through their original intentions at all costs.

There were obviously some questions regarding the proposals and the cost saving that needed more clarification but the CCG, at no time, sought such clarification. They drew their own conclusions based on their already having made the decision last September which they were hell bent on implementing.

In fact it became clear during the last few months that the process of engaging the community was getting in the way since attempts to communicate with senior people often fell on deaf ears.

The nadir was reached when at the Eastern Locality Board meeting on May 27th it was announced that the GPs on the board were no longer eligible to vote due to conflicts of interest.

The whole reason for the establishment of the CCG,

From the editor's chair Where to go now after hospital beds shock

I HATE to say I told you so - but I'm sorry to say I told you so!

At no time during the months of delicate negotiations between campaigners trying to save in-patient beds at Axminster and the various and confusing NHS bodies did I feel there was any hope of saving the beds.

When the cash-strapped NHS made the unbelievable decision to spend up to £75,000 by challenging a High Court order to prevent the transfer of beds to Seaton, I never thought there was any way they were going to maintain in-patient beds in Axminster.

I have the greatest respect for those on the League of Friends, a fantastic organisation which has done Axminster proud over many years, and the Axminster Hospital Action Group, for the manner in which they have fought to retain the beds.

It has become clear that some of those meetings were extremely difficult but the Axminster campaigners maintained dignity throughout, conducting themselves in a professional manner and adopting a policy of working with the various groups to fund a solution.

There were occasions when I thought they were being too conciliatory but they were led to believe throughout that a solution was possible and even probable.

We now know that was not the case.

The case of the disappearing nurses has been explained, although I find it hard to believe, but no mention has been made of the promise at one of the Axminster public meetings that further consideration would be given to the catchment area that the hospital served.

And the one issue which must surely be addressed at some time is how much has all this cost, especially in officer time, when the NHS is haemorrhaging money.

As we are about to go to press, the CCG is hurriedly trying to issue a press release dismissing some of the claims made on these pages. We will, of course, publish their response.

It's difficult to know where to go from here. Axminster, of course, is not the only hospital to be affected with Ottery also losing beds after an equally robust fight. And it looks like some of the community hospitals in South Somerset also have a battle on their hands.

Efforts are being made to get our MPs to campaign for an inquiry into the whole sad debacle and some are putting great store in the fact that the Royal Devon & Exeter Hospital could well be running the community hospitals by the end of the year.

However, that does not necessarily mean the beds will return.

Philip Evans

as opposed to the previous PCT structure, was to ensure that the decisions made were based on the clinical needs of the community.

It was clear, prior to the meeting, that many of the GPs were looking favourably on the recommendation put forward by the Stakeholder Group. Could this have been why the vote was suddenly withdrawn?

The MD, John Finn, showed no understanding of the details of the recommendations and his summary of them at the May locality board was both dismissive and frankly abusive towards the process that had been put in place by themselves.

The latest is that in fact the CCG, who have been named as one of the poorest performing group in the country, are not actually saving the £500,000 but will be investing this in more care at home, which as yet has to be defined.

How much longer do we have to put up with these inept and incompetent people running a failing "business" which is wasting OUR money? They have already been put under special measures and yet they still continue to work in the same way. This is surely one definition of madness. Continuing to do the same things and expect different results. When they did do something different and established the stakeholder group, they refused to listen to it.

How do we go about effecting change here? There are CCGs across the country who are working effectively with their communities to deliver excellence. The NEW Devon CCG do not appear to have looked at best practice otherwise they would not be in the state they're in.

I have no issue with people being paid high salaries when they are delivering excellent results. Surely

NHS England needs to review the value for money it is receiving from the Directors of the NEW Devon CCG.

Steve Holt
A resident of Axminster

So what happened to the nurses?

NORTHERN Devon Healthcare NHS Trust (NDHT) has confirmed that newly recruited nurses are not being paid by money from Axminster Hospital League of Friends. A sum of up to £300,000 was offered if in-patient beds temporarily moved to Seaton were brought back to Axminster Hospital.

NDHT, the League of Friends and Axminster Hospital Action Group subsequently launched a joint recruitment campaign, which was expanded to also include posts in other parts of East Devon.

The campaign was so successful that an Axminster in-patient bed reopening date had been set for late July.

But the bombshell news that the reopening was off for the time being reverberated around town last Tuesday. The reason given was "sudden and significant staffing shortages".

The NDHT didn't give a number of nurses, but a spokesperson said: "Having been in a position in June when over 80 per cent of registered nursing posts for Axminster were being filled by permanent staff, the figure has since dropped to 57.5 per cent. There are currently 4.27 full-time equivalent vacancies for registered nurses."

NDHT would not disclose what had caused the sudden drop because of "staff confidentiality" but a source close to the recruitment campaign told Pulman's View that three of the nurses had a sudden change of heart and accepted jobs with Hospiscare instead.

When asked what has happened to staff signed-up and still committed, the spokesperson said: "They will remain redeployed to other sites as required."

The next question was if those nurses' salaries are paid for by the money pledged by Axminster Hospital League of Friends, to which the reply was: "No."

"Any employee deployed to another community hospital while we worked to recruit sufficient numbers of nurses at Axminster has been filling vacancies in those hospitals. Therefore they are paid for by the NHS."

consolidation from last September.

"One can only surmise that this was their intention all along."

The CCG has contracted NDHT to manage the community hospitals, but has announced RD&E as the preferred provider when the current contract expires (see story on page 5).

NEW Devon CCG), which had a planned £14.7 million deficit from a budget of £1.1 billion last financial year, having overspent by £14.6 million the previous year, says that concentrating in-patient beds to a total of three hospitals will save up to £500,000 a year.

NEW Devon CCG was in such a state that it announced a number of potential measures last year as part of its financial recovery programme.

This included a list of services "considered for disinvestment".

Sources close to the campaign has revealed to Pulman's View that MP Neil Parish will be asked to press for a full audit of NHS funds spent in the Transforming Community Services process, as well as a public inquiry.

MP Parish said: "I am looking at ways to appeal against the decision. I am seeking an urgent meeting with the Secretary of State for Health Rt Hon Jeremy Hunt MP."

In the meantime, the AHAG and LoF task group is meeting with NDHT CEO Alison Diamond today (Tuesday).

It is likely to be a tense meeting. The joint AHAG and LoF statement said: "Recruitment described as "for Axminster Hospital" has been, at the very least, misleading.

"We have had many meetings with NDHT, some of which were difficult and, at times, seemed as though the goal posts were constantly changing

"At the end of May we were told that we had our 80 per cent requirement of registered nurses but needed to recruit health care assistants and therapists. This delayed the opening to the end of July.

"During this delay, nurses have decided to leave hospital working and move into the community.

"The result has been that these holes have been filled with staff that were recruited through the Axminster campaign leaving us short of nurses to reopen.

"The question being asked is that if we had recruited health care assistants in parallel with registered nurses and opened in June, would the trust have let these nurses transfer?

"Some of these staff have informed us of their disappointment and are seriously considering their future as their first choice was always Axminster and that's why they took the job.

"None of the £300,000 that was offered by LoF to support the reopening has been transferred and remains in the league's bank account.

{ We feel very sorry that staff have been recruited and are now let down, we truly believed the beds would reopen and not that we were recruiting for the whole area }

"NDHT unilaterally withdrew any nursing funds for the reopening of the Axminster beds and maintained that there had been a misunderstanding about the offer which had been made.

Staff let down

"We feel very sorry that staff have been recruited and are now let down, we truly believed the beds would reopen and not that we were recruiting for the whole area.

"We have saved NDHT a lot of money with innovative ideas and ways of recruiting they had not thought of and spent hours of time which we were led to believe was for the good of Axminster, not so.

"There are lots of questions still to be asked however. We will continue to strive to get realistic answers.

"Thank you to everyone who has supported the campaign including current staff at the hospital and apologies to any recruited staff who feel let down, they and us certainly have been."

NDHT has seen the statement and CEO Alison Diamond said: "We acknowledge how much people care about their local services and understand the disappointment felt by communities when difficult decisions have to be made that don't meet popular approval.

"On the back of the CCG's announcement on the permanent loss of beds in Axminster, we would urge people not to lose sight of the excellent joint work we have achieved by sharing the problem and working together with the community.

"We all have to face the facts that the national nursing shortage makes safely staffing so many community hospitals in Devon extremely difficult."

Long-standing LoF member Mervyn Symes commented: "With reference to the CCG decision, I feel it to be very short-sighted. I would hope that AHAG will continue to challenge the decision made.

"Not only is Axminster a fast growing town, but the hospital also covers a catchment area over the Devon, Dorset and Somerset borders.

"I feel a little bemused at the decision not to reinstate the inpatient beds due to the inadequate staffing levels, given the excellent recruitment campaign.

"Having spoken with Neil Parish MP last Friday morning about the decision, he stated that he would be speaking with Jeremy Hunt MP before the summer recess.

"It is possible that AHAG/League of Friends may decide to hold a further public meeting to allow public debate and an indication of a way forward for the campaign."

Mr Symes also offered a glimmer of hope by saying: "Last week I spoke with RD&E chairman James Brent, who stated that he was 100 per cent sure that they would be taking over the community hospitals.

"So, to conclude, we will be getting a second bite of the cherry, so to speak."

Pulman's View asked NEW Devon CCG if the organisation awarded the contract can overrule last week's decision and reopen beds at Axminster Hospital should it so wish.

They responded by saying: "The decision regarding where inpatient beds should be located is a commissioning decision and the CCG expects any successful provider to stick to this decision."

CCG defend decision process

IN RESPONSE to Mr Holt's allegations, a spokesperson for the CCG said: "On Thursday July 16th, doctors made the decision, alongside NHS managers, to consolidate inpatient beds in East Devon from 10 inpatient units to seven, to allow hospitals in East Devon to have larger, more resilient units. This results in a small overall reduction in community hospital inpatient beds from 172 to 163.

"The problems faced by the provider, Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust, in staffing Axminster Hospital illustrate the difficulties with providing continuously safe and high-quality care at community hospitals with small inpatient units.

"NHS NEW Devon CCG set up and worked with the Wakley Stakeholder Reference Group to work up alternative proposals on top of the CCG proposal that would achieve safe and high-quality care for patients at Axminster Hospital and the other hospitals in the Wakley area.

"The Wakley proposal would have cost an extra £200,000 and in order to achieve it, the CCG would have had to take resources from other areas of East Devon.

"The CCG had to make a decision that would benefit the entire community of East Devon and for this reason, it was decided that the community hospitals at Axminster, Crediton and Ottery St Mary will no longer have overnight inpatient beds."

The spokesperson also dismissed the allegation that the senior members of the CCG who attended meetings "showed no interest in the progress whatsoever".

More in-patient beds at Seaton and Sidmouth hospitals but Axminster and Ottery to lose out SEATON and Sidmouth were the winners when NHS Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group's (NEW Devon CCG) announced the future concept for in-patient hospital beds.

Seaton will gain 14 beds and have a total of 24, although some of the extra beds are already in place having been moved from Axminster Hospital.

Sidmouth Hospital will go from having 18 beds to 24, whilst Honiton Hospital sees a modest reduction from 18 beds to 16.

The major casualties are Axminster Hospital and Ottery St Mary Hospital, which will have no medical beds at all, although Ottery will have 15 specialist stroke beds. But the changes could be a stop-gap measure only.

A Northern Devon Healthcare Trust (NDHT) spokesperson explained: "Community hospital beds in Eastern Devon will be consolidated as a platform for further review and reform of community services, aiming to treat more people in their own home where it is safe and appropriate to do so."

"None of the community hospitals will close as a result of the decision. Health and social care hubs with a range of outpatient services, day surgery and other health and social care services will be developed at hospitals without inpatient beds."

Dr David Jenner, a GP from Cullompton and chairman of the Eastern Locality of NHS NEW Devon CCG, added: "This will improve the resilience of care at our community hospitals in the face of financial and workforce challenges."

"Of course, we understand that some people will

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

always want to have community beds in their own area and this decision may disappoint them but making sure everyone has the same level of access to services is very important.

"Over the last few years the hospital provider Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust has had to temporarily close some community hospital inpatient units due to staffing issues.

"Consolidating means we will have much more robust staffing at our hospitals in the future."

The NDHT spokesperson added: "The process in which we developed the changes agreed today will now be considered at the Devon Health and Wellbeing Scrutiny Committee meeting on September 14th.

"The timeline for implementing the changes will depend on the outcomes and feedback from this meeting."

This is a Devon County Council committee whose role is to scrutinise the National Health Service in the county. It has the power to look into the provision of health services and issues that affect the economic, social or environmental wellbeing of the county. The timeline for implementing the changes will depend on the outcomes and feedback from the Scrutiny meeting.

Who will provide services at community hospitals?

It is not yet known who will provide community hospital services in East Devon when Northern Devon Healthcare NHS Trust's (NDHT) current contract expires in autumn.

NDHT has run integrated community health and social care services in East Devon since they were transferred from NHS Devon in April 2011.

Northern, Eastern and Western Devon Clinical Commissioning Group (NEW Devon CCG) selected Royal Devon and Exeter NHS Foundation Trust (RD&E) as the preferred provider. But Monitor, which regulates NHS-funded healthcare services, investigated a complaint by NDHT about the way the CCG had run the procurement process to select a preferred provider.

In its preliminary findings, Monitor found that the CCG needs to do more work to outline the scope of the services to be provided, to understand how the providers would deliver them and to outline the value for money achieved through procuring the services. However, the provisional findings do not uphold NDHT's complaint that the procurement process was unfair and unclear.

Monitor invited comment to its provisional findings from all interested parties until late June, and is currently analysing the replies and will deliver its final decision in due course.

Axminster campaigners were generally in favour of RD&E early on as it was felt the organisation would be keen to utilise community hospital in-patient beds to relieve pressure at RD&E's hospital in Exeter. However, Axminster Hospital League of Friends and Axminster Hospital Action Group then formed a close working relationship with NDHT, launching a joint recruitment campaign.

However, the CCG have stated that the decision regarding where inpatient beds should be located is a commissioning decision and the CCG expects any successful provider to stick to this decision.

Although the CCG has made its mind up, there may be one or two hurdles left.

The decision will be on the agenda of the Devon Health and Wellbeing Scrutiny Committee meeting on September 14th.

This is a Devon County Council committee with a role to scrutinise the National Health Service in the county.

It has the power to look into the provision of health services and issues that affect the economic, social or environmental wellbeing of the county and has it within its remit to try to make the relevant Secretary of State investigate.

There is also the possibility of an individual or organisation seeking a judicial review of the decision.

Judicial Review can be described as "a type of court proceeding in which a judge reviews the lawfulness of a decision or action made by a public body".

This means that a judicial review is a challenge to the way in which a decision was made, not if the decision itself was right or wrong. In addition, the judicial review path is understood to come at considerable cost.

Beer festival reaches record profit

AXMINSTER Beer Festival organisers have reason to celebrate after achieving a record profit from this year's event, writes Anders Larsson.

The beer festival is the main fundraiser for Axminster Tourist Information Centre (TIC), and this year generated a hefty profit of £12,422. That total is about £3,400 more than was raised last year.

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

A number of reasons are given for the unprecedented fundraising success.

The attendance of 1,500 people or so, was about 300 higher than last year, which could partly be explained by the local young farmers' club not having its ball the night before as usual, meaning some people were looking for an alternative event.

TIC chairman Sarah Crook said: "I am delighted that there is some extra money for the TIC.

"This will help support our extended opening hours and other services that the TIC provides, used by both local people and visitors alike.

"The committee is delighted that the local community came together to make this such a successful and happy day out."

TIC press officer and town councillor Joy Raymond added: "I was delighted to see fellow councillor Andrew Moulding and district councillor Ian Hall supporting this annual local event that is so important raising funds for our independent and self-funding TIC."

■ OWL Class at St Mary's Primary School in Axminster welcomed Dr Usher from Colyton Grammar School on Tuesday, July 7th.

Pupils enjoyed a morning of hands-on, enthralling science linked to forces and rocket building.

Dr Usher said: "I was really impressed with the students' scientific understanding. There are lots of budding rocket scientists at St. Mary's."

Divas race for life

■ MEMBERS of Scott Rowe Divas will be running/walking/skipping and dancing for 10k when they take part in Race for Life in Exeter on July 26th.

The event is in aid of Cancer Research UK and members of the Axminster team are ready for challenge.

gela Larcombe, Mandy Loveridge, Vanessa Webb, Sharon Giddings, Michelle Prosser, Kate Maslen. Also in the team but not in the photo are Sara Welch and eight-year-old Kaitlin Hill.

Pets raise big money for animal sanctuary

STAFF and customers at the Pets at Home branch in Axminster have raised a whopping £1,115.85 for Ferne Animal Sanctuary in Wambrook, near Chard.

The money was raised through a programme called Support Adoption for Pets, and Ferne Animal Sanctuary head of external fundraising Jenny Wheadon said: "Everyone at Ferne was absolutely delighted."

Miriam Christian from Pets at Home, Axminster, said: "We really would like our customers to know how grateful we are to them for their continued support with our charity work.

"Events will be happening during the summer months so please keep a look out within the stores."

Axe Valley Community College – Year 11 Prom

DEER Park Hotel, near Honiton, was the setting for this year's Axe Valley Community College Year 11 Prom, writes Anders Larsson.

Students from the Axminster college were greeted by staff and parents as they arrived in a wonderful assortment of transport including tractors, stretched Cadillacs, Hummers, Jaguars and even space hoppers.

One notable absentee was the unlucky Dominic Goodhew, who dislocated his knee shortly before leaving for the prom and was forced to go to hospital for an X-ray. He didn't want to miss out, however, and managed to make an appearance still wearing his prom trousers that had been cut by the medics who put his knee back in place.

The Prom King and Queen titles were awarded to Alfie Brooker and Amber Hales. Ashdon Potter won the casino prize after turning £200 Axe Valley Pounds into £740.

Matty Vincent took the accolade of best rodeo bull rider with a time of 1 minute 26 seconds whilst headteacher Martin Smith only managed to stay on the bull for a disappointing 12 seconds.

A college spokesperson said: "Thanks to all staff, students and parents for making this years prom so memorable."

Clockwise from above:

- Max Richardson and Amber Widger
- Kyle Gould, Jacob Rowe, Diowel Cruda and Lewis Cottam

Success in more ways than one for fayre

NICE weather meant the Seaton & District Hospital League of Friends fayre could be held outdoors.

It proved to be a successful event on Saturday, July 4th in more ways than one, as the event generated a healthy profit and a local doctor's pop-up surgery detected five cases of skin cancer thanks to a piece of kit provided by the League.

League of Friends manager Lycia Moore said: "We took £1,380 on the day, which will be used to buy equipment for Seaton Hospital and also go towards the Seaton Friends

by Anders Larsson
anders@tindlenews.co.uk

Hospiscare @ Home service, formerly known as Seaton Home Nursing Service."

Chris Entwistle, deputy matron at Seaton Hospital and staff nurse Jill Millman manned a health stand.

Chris said: "We were checking for high blood pressure. We also carried out random blood sugar levels to check for diabetes.

"We saw approximately 60 people over the morning every one we saw was generally ok with the two tests some of the people already had high blood pressure (being monitored by the GP and on medication) and the same for diabetes.

"We recommend that two people see there GP for high blood sugar levels and one for high blood pressure.

"I also suggested that one person who had a history of high blood pressure go and see their GP as their blood pressure was low."

Dr Joe Pitt, dermatology consultant and local GP, ran a free mole check clinic.

He explained: "I was delighted to attend the Seaton & District Hospital League of Friends' summer fayre where I was able to demonstrate the new dermatoscope which has been so generously funded by them.

"It was shown to be of enormous value as I was able to diagnose five skin cancers that day; two of which needed further urgent assessment.

"I was also able to reassure a large number of patients with harmless benign lesions they had been worried about. Thank you again to the League."

Lycia added: "I would like to thank all our volunteers for all the hard work they put in to make our fayre a success and also everyone who supported our event on the day.

"Also a special thank you to Temp-tations, who provided refreshments for all our volunteers.

"If anyone would like to join the league as a volunteer, we are currently recruiting volunteers for our charity shop and also for our befriending service, visiting lonely people in our community for an hour each week."

SEATON Library is gearing itself up for what it hopes will be a record-breaking summer.

The library launched its annual summer reading challenge on Saturday with a special event to mark this year's theme of record breakers.

"We decided to hold an attempt to break the record for eating as much jelly in a minute with a pair of chopsticks," said Pene Davis, who is the Seaton Library Supervisor.

"It was a lot of fun and the children seemed to enjoy it." Nine-year-old Gretta Davies won the competition with 20 grams of jelly but whether that broke any record has yet to be confirmed.

The main business of the day was to get as many children as possible to sign up for the summer reading challenge, which is aimed at encouraging youngsters to read at least six books during the holiday season.

"We had a really good turn-out and it is important to note that children can come into the library and register for the challenge at any time," added Pene.

Jelly eating challenge

There are lots of incentives for children to get involved in the scheme.

Pene later confirmed that Seaton Library had received 150 pledges on the day – 74 children pledged to visit the library and read during the summer, six young volunteers pledged to encourage children to read during the summer and 70 adults pledged to encourage people they know to read with children this summer.

School's summer fete is a big hit

SEATON Primary School's summer fete was a fun-packed affair with a gladiator duels, bouncy castles, 'soak the teacher', children's craft activities, games, glitter tattoos, home baked cakes, and more.

The weather was hot, the wood-fired pizza oven and BBQs were sizzling, and in the martial arts corner tae kwon do boards were being broken.

This year they weren't the only thing being smashed. By coming along and having fun, parents,

by Anders Larsson

children, friends and family helped the school and the association for parents and teachers to raise a record breaking amount of just over £3,500.

The funds will enable the association to provide many extra resources to Seaton Primary School in the next academic year.

Lucky raffle winners walked away with some amazing prizes donated from local companies such as Bicton Park and Escot.

Jess Brooks, chairman of the PTA, commented: "The summer fete is such a fantastic and fun day out for all the family, and brings our whole local community together."

"The programme we printed this year showed the amazing amount of local businesses that are involved and we are really grateful to everyone who helped make it such a success from businesses to parents, teachers and the children themselves."

Little Old Ladies film goes live

A SHORT film produced by Seaton-based Bus Pass Productions was released online on July 15th.

As previously reported, the film was shot in back in May, featuring actors Joan Cowie and Elizabeth Barrow being told off by Jo Beckett's police community support officer character for consuming alcohol in a public place.

Director and producer Chrissy Evans said about LOL, which stands for Little Old Ladies: "The lead actresses are well into their 70s and 80s and, although pillars of society, don't shrink from a little naughtiness in the film! If it makes people smile then we are all happy."

Bus Pass Productions aims to fill a gap in the film-making world. Most members are pensioners and make films which they feel would appeal across the board, to all ages.

Chrissy added: "We were shown at a couple of festivals this year, including Glastonbury. And who knows, maybe Cannes next year?"

Axminster needs another medical centre

■ REFERRING to the comment concerning patients and our medical practice buckling under the workload, these are my views concerning the practice.

Our doctors, nurses and the staff are a wonderful team and shows dedication to us, the patients.

As more people move into our area our surgery is becoming much more congested and obviously more doctors and nurses are needed – we surely need another surgery in Axminster!

I do not see how an automated phone service would alleviate the problem (especially for the hard of hearing!). Why did the local authorities not foresee the problem before?

Besides all this, we have a major problem with the congested traffic in Church Street and very little parking space. Of course, this should be a one-way street.

Come on Axminster, let's now come together and put these matters to the authorities and demand that a new surgery be built to alleviate these problems.

Glad MP has changed mind on fracking

■ I MET Neil Parish MP a number of times during the recent election campaign and found him to be a decent honourable man.

If he has had a change of heart on fracking it maybe that he listened to the concerns on fracking raised by his fellow candidates and his constituents at the numerous hustings during the election campaign.

Personally, I have concerns over the safety of fracking versus any potential economic gain and that we should ensure the safety of the environment for our generation and future generations.

If our MP is now aligning himself to these views then that has to be a good thing.

Thanks for supporting Nepal fund

■ THE shopkeepers of Seaton are amazing!

They work long hours, provide very tempting, colorful displays on their shop fronts, give service with a smile whether you require a small or large item.

I was delighted when my chosen shops welcomed my collecting tins for a short time for Christian Aid's Nepal Earthquake Appeal. They came up trumps so I thought your readers should know that, through their kindness, and the generosity of Seaton's shoppers, they combined to raise over £100.

So a big thank you to Jason's Nature Harvest, Dee Byrne Jones, Tony's Animal Botanical and Paper Chain and to Seaton's shoppers (knowing that many have given already) for their part in helping to rebuild the lives and homes of victims and giving them a message of hope.

Baby weaning book in Colyton Library

■ LAST Tuesday morning, when Colyton library was staffed by volunteers, a lady came in with her baby looking for a book called "Baby-led Weaning" by Gill Rapley. Unfortunately, by leaving out the hyphen, I was unable at the time to locate the book in the library computer catalogue. I would like the lady to know that this book is in fact available to borrow from the library.

Huts should be provided at fair price primarily for local people

■ COUNCILLOR Geoff Pook, East Devon District Council's chairman of asset management, told Seaton Town Council's public meeting last week that beach huts were a financial asset for the council.

He said his aim is to "identify the market rate" and get the "best value" for them. Surely, however, the sites and huts are community assets of the people of Seaton and other towns in East Devon, and should be valued primarily for the use which many residents make of them?

No one at the meeting favoured EDDC's proposed auction. Huts should continue to be provided as a service, primarily for local people, at a fixed, fair price which reflects the real costs – which Councillor Pook admitted he doesn't even know.

Since so many people are on waiting lists, what about providing additional sites in Seaton and elsewhere?

IAN ROSENBLATT is a lawyer and senior partner of corporate law firm Rosenblatt Solicitors in London. As a supporter of charitable causes, notably in the field of classical music, he launched the Branscombe Festival in 2013, which returns later this month.

● WHERE did the inspiration for the Branscombe music festival come from?
I have had a house in Branscombe for over 15 years. Around five years ago I put on a concert in the Village Hall and it was a resounding success, accruing a lot of local support. I then thought that a festival would be a good way to bring more people to the village, to visit the beautiful St Winifred's church, the beach, the village hall and, of course, to patronise the local pubs, cafes and hotels.

● THIS is the third Branscombe Music festival, how has it developed since you first started?
The festival is going from strength to strength and has had a fantastic reaction from the local community. Over the last three years we've been spreading the word to ensure that as many people as possible – from Devonshire and beyond – can experience all that the festival has to offer.

● WHO will be performing at the festival?
We've got a wonderful programme this year and are welcoming an array of talent to Branscombe, from internationally acclaimed opera stars Susan Bullock CBE, Francesco Meli and Angel Blue to Ronnie Scott's regulars, dance band The Leo Green Experience and rising star soul singer Danny Toeman. There will also be two highly contrasting instrumental quartets performing this year: a classic string quartet, the Sacconi quartet and 4-MALITY, a percussion quartet, which is a rarity and much anticipated.

● WHO are you most looking forward to seeing?

I'm hugely looking forward to each and every performance – each artist brings something unique to the festival – but I have to say that the procession through the village by the Band of the Royal Marines followed by a free concert on Branscombe Beach will be quite spectacular!

● WHAT should festivalgoers be looking out for?

The Royal Marines procession is definitely not one to miss. Also over the weekend there will be a hog roast and a cream tea – both real treats. In terms of faces to look out for, our presenter Petroc Trelawny will be around and should make things quite lively, as will all of the performers, no doubt!

● WHAT makes the Branscombe music festival unique?

It has an idiosyncratic mission: to host world-class performers in Branscombe village's intimate, unusual settings, from St Winifred's Church to the idyllic Branscombe beach. Also, given the number of people the festival brings to the village, it creates excellent opportunities to support local businesses.

● DOES the festival raise money?

Yes, fundraising is definitely an important part of the festival, and the causes we support are chosen with great care. Last year a proportion of ticket sales were donated to the Royal National Lifeboat Institution – a life-saving charity with whom Branscombe has strong ties – and this year we will be donating to St Winifred's Church fund.

● WHAT'S the most important thing to remember about planning large events, such as the music festival?

The devil is in the detail.

■ THE Branscombe Festival takes place from Friday, July 24th to Sunday, July 26th.

Artists performing include 4-Mality; The Sacconi Quartet; soprano Susan Bullock with pianist Richard Sisson; tenor Francesco Meli & soprano Angel Blue with pianist Matteo Pais; and The Leo Green Experience with Danny Toeman.

For more information, visit the web site branscombefestival.co.uk.

Ferne Animal Sanctuary

PROVIDING REFUGE FOR UNWANTED ANIMALS

FERNE Animal Sanctuary strives to provide care and refuge for unwanted domestic and farm animals. The Sanctuary rehomes dogs and cats within a 30 mile radius of Ferne. Some horses and ponies are available for permanent loan; all other animals remain at the Sanctuary for the rest of their lives. We rely entirely on donations and legacies to continue its work. Some of the animals come to Ferne because they have been neglected or are no longer wanted. Others come to us because of circumstantial changes of their owners. All animals are given the care, attention and TLC they need to enjoy a happy life while they are at Ferne.

New Digs for Dogs is up and running

FERNE Animal Sanctuary's £1 million New Digs for Dogs building was formally opened in March this year.

BBC Somerset presenter Matt Faulkner cut the ribbon to the joy of sanctuary staff, volunteers and supporters who spent months fundraising for the project.

Based in Wambrook, near Chard, and founded in 1939 by the late animal activist Nina Douglas-Hamilton, Duchess of Hamilton and Brandon, Ferne Animal Sanctuary originally looked after the pets of servicemen and women who were going away to fight for their country.

The sanctuary's old, dilapidated kennel facility, which was nearly 50 years old could not withstand another winter, and so was demolished during March 2014.

The hard work then began to raise the funds needed for the new build. While an incredible £500,000 has come from the charity's reserves saved specifically for this purpose, the remaining £500,000 was raised through donations and special events in less than a year.

The new centre enables the sanctuary to double its current capacity and it can now look after up to 50 dogs. Apart from the kennel block, it also includes an improved grooming and veterinary care room, social unit, offices, reception and a shop.

Elaine Hayes, CEO at Ferne Animal Sanctuary, said at the opening event: "I am absolutely delighted that we are formally opening our new re-homing centre. This is another landmark in Ferne's history as we enter our 75th year.

"This centre will allow us to help more dogs find happy, forever homes across Somerset, Devon and Dorset."

During the opening day, Matthew Crabb, a world-renowned chainsaw artist, carved Ferne's logo into a tree stump as a lasting memory to commemorate the occasion.

The Mayor of Chard, Councillor Jenny Kenton, who attended the opening, said: "Andy and I frequently visit Ferne with our grandchildren, and were absolutely thrilled to be part of the celebrations. To raise half a million pounds in under a year is such a fantastic achievement and just goes to show how much people love animals.

"During the fundraising period, every penny really did count and that hard earned cash is now providing all of us, and the animals, with this incredible state-of-the-art centre. For the animals that are homed here, it is their lifeline.

"We wish Ferne every success for the future and would encourage everyone to come and see the new facility soon."

Ferne Animal Sanctuary is a registered charity open to the public all year round except Christmas Day and New Year's Day. It relies solely on donations. For more information visit www.ferneanimalsanctuary.org or call 01460 65214.

AXMOUTH VILLAGE SHOW

SATURDAY 25TH JULY 2015 • COOMBE FIELD, AXMOUTH

73RD AXMOUTH VILLAGE SHOW

THE Axmouth Village Show is in its 73rd year and we are expecting that the local communities competitive spirit in the fields of Horticulture, Home Baking, Crafts, Photography, Flower Arranging and Children's creativity will be as well supported as last year, being that these are the mainstay of the shows credentials.

The committee hope that villagers, locals and visitors to the area all come along to the show this Saturday to see the fine exhibits on show in the main marquee.

This year's back to basics approach to the show has seen us focusing on bringing Devon produce, entertainment and events to Axmouth for all to enjoy.

The main show ring will have displays by North Devon Falconry, Seaton Majorettes and a children's fancy dress completion, themed on

"Alice in Wonderland".

"Devon Bird" will be entertaining all the visitors in the main marquee all afternoon with their own brand of local music.

Local stall holders will have a selection of local produce and entertainments for you to peruse and enjoy, whilst the WI tea & cakes tent and licenced bar will keep you refreshed during the afternoon.

After the prize giving presentation, items from the show tent will be auctioned off, so please stay all afternoon and grab a bargain.

Our Evening entertainment this year features favourite local band "8 to the Bar", bringing you a wide selection of music to dance the night away.

Please come along to the show and have a fun afternoon / evening. See you there.

Steve Neighbour (Committee Chairman)

BRIEF HISTORY OF THE AXMOUTH VILLAGE SHOW

THE show began in 1942 when a Red Cross fund raising committee was formed, led by a young Jim Cross and Len Weekes, a gardener at Stedcombe Manor. They decided that a grand fete was needed to help lift the spirits and raise the much needed cash for this crucial part of the war effort. They were invited to hold the fete at Stedcombe Manor by its then owner, Miss Stephens.

The fete was an enormous success and the committee decided it would be repeated annually as a flower show each year, with a great array of home made goods on sale, as far as rationing would allow. When the war ended, the Dig for Victory campaign was in full swing and the Show transferred to the Webber's camp field, combined with the Village Produce Association and started raising funds for various charities including those for soldiers and seamen.

However, the rise of convenience foods and the general decline in vegetable growing meant that the Flower Show had gone into decline by the early eighties and at the same time costs had increased dramatically. A decision was taken to run the show in the Village Hall with stalls and fundraising in the car park. This provided an opportunity for a review of the Show, and a new committee then took forward plans for a major event in the centre of the village.

The offer of a field on an annual basis, from Lady Loveridge and her late husband, Sir John, has led to an increase in the size of the show.

Last Years Show went well, with over 400 contributions to the competitions in the Main Marquee. The Entertainment kept the visitors busy throughout the afternoon and feedback on the Event was very positive. This led to the creation of a new committee committed to maintaining the traditions of the Axmouth Village Show. This said, we are always looking for any assistance in delivering the Show, so Villagers if you want to be part of the committee or just give a helping hand please contact either David on 0129724456 or visit our Web Site <http://villageshow.co.uk/>

Devon Air Ambulance Week

Saturday 25th July - Sunday 2nd August 2015

Thank you!

SEATON Devon Air Ambulance Supporters Group would like to thank everyone who has contributed towards helping us to put together this wonderful support feature for the town - illustrating the variety of events happening over Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week. Your commitment to helping make our fundraising efforts a success is sincerely appreciated.

Money raised will help towards the Night Flying Campaign, extending flying hours, requiring additional Pilots, Paramedics, training and equipment which Devon Air Ambulance are working towards being operational by October 2016.

Thanks again for your generous support of our efforts to donate as much as possible to Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

Seaton Devon Air Ambulance Week 2015

ONE of Seaton's most popular summer attractions, Devon Air Ambulance Week, returns from July 25th to August 2nd. Now in its sixth year, the event is set to raise even more funds for the Devon Air Ambulance Trust.

This year it will cost £4.5 million to keep the air ambulances flying; next year this will increase to £5.5 million as from autumn 2016 DAA plan to be flying into the night - right the way up until midnight.

The Air Ambulance Week fun begins on the evening of Saturday, July 25th with comedy hypnotist Niall Flannery at PJs. Tickets are £5 and the event is for over 18s. There will also be a fundraising auction during the interval.

On Stage Entertainment

On stage entertainment on the Saturday includes:

Seaton Brownies (12noon-12:45pm)

Adam Sweet (1pm-1:45pm)

To describe Adam as a blues musician is doing him a dis-service, as he is so much more. A driving guitar style and a warm vocal that is influenced by classic rock and blues but sounds very contemporary.

The Awesomes featuring guest vocalists (2pm-3:45pm);

Vinyl Monkeys - two 1hr sets (4pm-6:30pm)

One of the most innovative bands to emerge on the south coast for a long long while. Their energetic rendering of covers from, among others - songs by Kings of Leon and the Killers, Kaiser Chiefs, Cee Lo Green along with their own original numbers, leave the audience wanting more at the end of every gig. The band continues to go from strength to strength with a core following of fans across the southwest

At the Vultures Desk (6:30-7:30pm)

The Swing is the Thing

IF YOU WANT to see July out on a high note, then Ilminster Arts Centre is the place to be! On Friday, July 31st Digby Fairweather and his Half Dozen will be setting the joint jumping as they perform at the latest stop in their "The Swing is the Thing" tour.

Led by ebullient front man Digby Fairweather, the Half Dozen is the best known of the UK's mainstream jazz small groups, and has won the UK jazz Award in this category an amazing eight times.

They are as popular with audiences as they are with the critics - and the Arts Centre phone has been receiving enquiries about this concert since the New Year! The level of interest has been such that the Arts Centre is advising "book soon to avoid disappointment".

This is a band of fun-loving musicians, whose music reflects their up-beat outlook on life. This will be an evening of happy, feel-good jazz.

The band consists of Digby Fairweather (trumpet/ cornet/ vocals) who founded the Half Dozen in 1994 and who sells out Ronnie Scott's with every appearance. In 2013 London's 'Worshipful Company of Musicians' presented him with a

Digby Fairweather

'Lifetime Achievement Award' for 'Services to Jazz'; Julian Marc Stringle (Clarinet/ reeds/ vocals) who formed his first band at the age of twelve and made his TV debut at fourteen with Acker Bilk; Chris Gower (Trombone) who joined Digby's Half Dozen in 2001; Craig Milverton (Piano/keyboards/vocals) a founder member Digby Fairweather's Half Dozen and who as a featured soloist has worked with everyone from Acker Bilk to Van Morrison; Dominic Ashworth (Guitars/vocals); Al Swainger (acoustic and electric bass) who joined Digby's Half Dozen fulltime in 2011 following a successful career in the West Country; drummer Nick Millward who began his professional career with Pete Allen and Terry Lightfoot before joining Kenny Ball's Jazzmen in 1998.

Digby Fairweather & His Half Dozen play at Ilminster Arts Centre on Friday, July 31st at 8pm. Tickets £20 (pre-show supper £12 at 7pm, booked in advance).

Local groups team up to produce The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe

LOCAL amateur theatre groups the Honiton Pantomime Society and the Honiton Players work together to produce Honiton's first full scale musical production at The Beehive in Honiton. The joint group 'The Honiton Community Theatre Company' is putting on the family classic 'The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe' on the July 31st to August 2nd with both evening and matinee performances to suit all audiences. Tickets are just £8 for adults and £6.50 for children with a special group rate for 10 or more people of £6.25.

The two local groups decided to team up on this latest production to celebrate The Beehive being a valuable community asset in the town and to offer performance opportunities to more young people to experience being on stage. The production features both adult and junior members of the groups and is performed with a live band and modern staging at The Beehive which proves to be a flexible performance venue for the groups.

Director of the production Alex Jackson who is Honiton born and bred commented:

"I'm really excited to be bringing this new musical version of C S Lewis' fantasy novel to the stage at The Beehive. This production has a real community aspect to it as we are being supported by many local people to bring you amazing costumes, set and musical as well as a very talented cast who have been rehearsing hard for the last six months to bring you this show"

Honiton Pantomime Society are fresh from their sell-out run of Sleeping Beauty at The Beehive which had rave reviews from audiences and reviewers alike:

"If there were tickets left, I'd snap them up, but they're all sold out. Better than the last West End show I saw" Audience member, February 2015

"Once again the society brought the local community together for an enjoyable evening of sparkling entertainment." Janet Elworthy NODA rep for South West district.

The Lion, The Witch and the Wardrobe will be performed at The Beehive in Honiton on the 31st July and 1st and 2nd August with both matinee and evening performances.

Tickets are £8 adults, £6.50 children, and groups of 10+ £6.25 each. To book call Box office: call 01404 384 050, visit www.beehivehoniton.co.uk or you can purchase tickets in person at the Beehive. You can also sponsor the production by emailing the group at info@honitonpanto.co.uk.

How the West was sung

JIM CAUSLEY and Friends will host a unique West-fest for Lyme Folk's finale on Sunday, August 23rd with 'How the West was Sung', a music-packed evening of song and banter, from local artists celebrating our beloved West Country, supported by Six Days, the Lyme-based brother and sister duo making big waves on the folk circuit Treading the boards with Jim, our patron and award-winning singer-songwriter, will be Nick Wyke and Becki Driscoll, a fiddling duo from North Devon and Bridport; Thorn and Roses, an acapello trio from Cornwall; Maggie Duffy and Mike Weed, singer/songsmith from Brixham and accompanist, and the award-winning boys from East Dorset, Ninebarrow.

How The West Was Sung celebrates the diversity of the West Country, from the rugged upland Moors of its interior to the gentle seas around Lyme Bay. With songs of murder most foul in Chagford, happenings in an alleyway in Port Isaac or a Honiton lace-makers lament, the music documents the legends, work and people of the West, whether on land or sea. Using both traditional and newly written songs, the evening "showcases our great home-grown talent" says Jim Causley, "sharing the region's strong oral traditions of funny, sad and illuminating musical stories to bring our wonderful West to life on stage".

Julie Sheppard, the festival's publicist said: "This is a musical extravaganza – it's like another mini-festival, with nine individual artists, all sharing a stage at the same time, singing and playing in the round about the characters and landscapes they come from and care about. It'll be fun, moving and hugely entertaining. And what's the odds on a rousing song celebrating cider at some point in the evening?"

This year's folk festival, now in its third summer, has a full programme of singing, dancing and music-making at Marine Theatre and other venues around the town.

How the West Was Sung, Sunday 23 August, Marine Theatre, Doors open 7pm.

Tickets: £12 (seated), under 16s: £7 from www.lymefolk.com or via 01297 442138 or visit Lyme Regis Tourist Information Centre, Church Street, Lyme Regis.

SPOTLIGHT

SPOTLIGHT ON MY SERVICE

Michelle Hague Hypnotherapy

Helping to cope with stress and anxiety

ANXIETY and stress can often create symptoms that in time cause illness. Anxiety is known to produce noticeable physical symptoms, such as rapid heartbeat, high blood pressure, and digestive problems. In General Anxiety Disorder (GAD) and Social Anxiety Disorder (SAD) the symptoms become so severe that normal daily functioning. Clinical Hypnosis and Cognitive behavioural therapy (CBT) are common treatments for stress and anxiety disorders and can be very effective in changing thinking and responses.

In contrast with CBT and in many ways very similar to Hypnosis Mindfulness and mindfulness-based therapies (MBTs) seek to change the relationship between the anxious person and his or her thoughts.

In mindfulness, the person focuses on the bodily sensations that arise when anxious. Instead of avoiding or withdrawing from these feelings, the focus is on remaining present and fully experiences the symptoms of anxiety. Instead of avoiding distressing thoughts, opening up to them in an effort to accept that they are not literally true, just ideas and imaginings often related to the past or future events but no less unreal in the present.

By remaining present in the moment aware of the breath and the body, individuals can learn that the anxiety they experience is merely a reaction to thoughts. By positively responding to threatening events instead of being reactive they can overcome an mistaken stress fight-or-flight response, and take control of their life.

The New BMW 320d ED Sport

BMW is now offering a sportier look and design to the popular EfficientDynamic models of the 3 Series. Based on the recently introduced ED Plus model, the ED Sport adds the sporting design characteristics of Sport trim, to the class-leading efficiency of the 320d ED engine. Powered by the new 2.0-litre engine and available in either a six-speed manual or the class leading eight-speed automatic, the new model teams effortless performance with better than ever emissions and fuel consumption.

Thanks to an extensive suite of EfficientDynamics technologies, the new BMW 320d ED Sport emits just 104g/km of CO₂ (manual: 108g/km), and has a combined fuel consumption of 70.6mpg, making it the cleanest and most fuel-efficient sports model in the 3 Series range. The improved technologies include Active Air Flaps integrated into the kidney grill and a lowered suspension set-up, both working to improve aerodynamics and overall performance and efficiency. This allows the 320d ED Sport Saloon to occupy a VED Band B and the Touring model to occupy the VED Band C with a Benefit in Kind (BIK) taxation rate of only 19 and 20 per cent respectively (Automatic: 19 and 20 per cent). This impressive fuel economy doesn't impact on performance with the 2.0-litre diesel engine developing 163hp and an acceleration from zero to 62mph in 7.8 seconds on its way to a top speed of 143mph.

Owners of the 320d ED Sport can also benefit from a low cost of ownership thanks to the £350 increase in residual value of the vehicle over the ED Plus. This allows customers to have the additional sporting styling and enhanced specification of the ED Sport for just £3 more than the cost of the ED Plus model.

With an OTR price of £30,205, the 320 ED Sport comes with more standard equipment and an even greater scope for personalisation. With 17-inch light-alloy wheels as standard, as well as Business Navigation, a selection of Dakota leather upholsterys, Sports steering wheel, unique trim finishers and Heated Sports Front Seats - The ED Sport provides an additional £840 of standard equipment for only £500 more than the ED Plus model. There are a wide variety of options available including a range of 18-inch or 19-inch wheels as well as the extensive range of technologies available to the rest of the 3 Series range.

SOMERSET CRICKET

West of England Premier Cricket League

Premier One

Ilminster 1st XI

Ilminster 142 all out (6) lost to Bristol 277 all out (20) by 135 runs. ILMINSTER remain bottom after this defeat by Bristol. Electing to bat the visitors lost an early wicket to Louis Kraucamp (2-49), but with opener Sam Snell hitting a magnificent 124 and ably supported by Will Young (20) and James Bracey (58) they took the game away from Ilminster.

Harry Montacute (3-55) finally broke their stranglehold and Sam Grinter (4-45) cleared out the bottom order, leaving Ilminster to chase 277.

Things didn't start too well in reply with John Hurford (0) soon back in the pavilion, and when Jonny Warry (10) and Kraucamp (20) also perished it was left to Charlie Vickery to try and turn the tide.

He made a splendid 52 not out, but with only Craig Rice (14) and Montacute (12) reaching double figures, Ilminster fell well short of their target.

Premier Two

Chard 1st XI

Keynsham 230-5 (22) beat Chard 229 all out (7) by 5 wickets. ALTHOUGH they lost Tim Wighton (1) early on George Retter and Reid Mawdsley (22) added 60 for the second wicket. Tom Wright (22) helped Retter add a further 48 before the opener was dismissed for a solid 74 that included eight 4s and three 6s.

Jon Dalwood kept the score ticking over with eight 4s in his unbeaten 54 as Chard reached a respectable 229 all out.

Scott Wells-Burr (1-40) removed Josh Tasman-Jones in the first over, but that was Chard's only real success as the next four home batsmen helped themselves to runs with Daniel Jarman top scoring with 87 as they passed Chard's total with two overs to spare.

Somerset Division

North Perrott

North Perrott 200-9 (7) lost to Wembdon 241-6 (19) by 41 runs. LEADERS North Perrott lost to third place Webdon despite good batting performances from skipper Gordon Whorlow (46) and Brett Johnson (52).

Chasing 242 for victory, only Will Ireland (23) with a late rally scored many, before becoming the fourth batsmen to be run out as they chased their target. Earlier the home bowlers toiled as Joshua Marrs hit fifteen 4s and a six in his 111 from 122 balls.

Premier Two 2nd XI

Chard 2nd XI

Chard 2nd 146 all out (7) lost to Taunton St Andrews 166 all out (17) by 20 runs. CHARD 2nds dropped to fourth behind their victors following this 20 run defeat.

They looked in a strong position after bowling out Taunton St Andrews for 166 and made a solid start in reply with Nathan Johnson (18) and Liam Carrison (41) putting on 48 for the first wicket, and although they lost Adam Veitch for a duck on the same score, Carrison and Andrew Clancy (25) added a further 50 for the third wicket.

However they crashed from 98-2 to 117-8 as Tom Radley (5-24) ripped out the middle order, and although Stephen Denning (14) and Callum Hayes (10) showed late resistance, they fell 20 short of their target.

Bristol & Somerset 2nd XI

Ilminster 2nd XI

Knowle 135 all out (3) lost to Ilminster 2nd 138-2 (21) by 8 wickets. ILMINSTER 2nds secured another victory, reaching their target with 14 overs to spare and eight wickets in hand.

Honiton foursome win the Foundation Shield

HONITON with Julie Grant

IT WAS a fabulous win for four Honiton bowlers at Feniton in their Foundation Shield.

Peter Goodwin, Joan Mackintosh, Bob Macintosh and Bill Nicholls played six games of four ends and came out victors against 11 other teams with a great shot difference of 21, well done you four.

Off to Leamington again; Sue Evans helped Devon ladies win through in the county double rink Walker Cup when, in pouring rain, they beat Worcestershire 43-35 and Somerset 38-33.

Some disappointment though as Devon lost their John's run to Somerset and Honiton ladies lost their Interclub quarter-final to Tiverton West End.

In the mixed friendlies Honiton have won a couple and lost one.

Against Belmont Honiton won 71-59; top rink - Joan Mackintosh, Heather Chambers, Ken Clarke.

Against Paignton Torbay Honiton won 79-49 despite heavy rain reducing the game to 14 ends; top rink - Eileen Dommett, Fred Dart, Keith Parsons.

However Honiton lost to Exonia 71-78; top rink - Di Hawkins, David Lindley, Carol Armitage, Ken Clarke.

Winning ways returned at Axminster with a fine 76-50 victory; top rink - Maureen Wilcocks, David Downs, Gerry Stafrace 24-9.

The ladies also enjoyed a win over Sidmouth at home 56-42; top rink - Joan Mackintosh, Heather Chambers, Ann Hillyear 22-10.

The men's Over 60s A team were disappointed to lose to a team they had previously beaten, the score being 27 to Honiton and 42 to Cullompton.

SEATON with Maria Johnson

ON MONDAY, July 13th the club had a four-rink mixed match away at Phear Park.

Runners set off into the woods

HONITON

ON MONDAY, July 12th Morganhayes Woods was inundated with runners of all ages. They were taking part in the Woodland Relays organised this time by Axe Valley Runners.

It is a fun event fiercely challenged by AVR, Honiton Running Club, N1 Tri Club, Met Office, Ex-mouth Harriers and Sidmouth Running Club with some very fast Upottery Primary School children in attendance too.

No matter what age the participant is, everyone runs in relay teams of three tackling the 3k hilly route of muddy tracks designed by Garry Parrett.

The overall winning team was the Livingstone family in the very speedy time of 36 minutes 58 seconds.

The first Honiton team home were the Honiton men finishing 3rd overall in 40:01 and made up of Kevin Hawker, Karl Hodson and Steve Selley.

The Honiton Junior Girls were next back coming 6th overall and not only winning the prize for 1st U17 girls but were also 1st female team home overall.

They took 44:35 and were made up of Flo Swan, Morgan Davy and Jasmine Stone. Jasmine challenged Alasdair Moffett to the line and he made up Honiton's next team home in 44:39.

That team took the mixed adults prize and was made up of Suzanne Spiller, Judy Davey and Alasdair.

Honiton's mixed junior team also had success winning their category to finish 11th overall and 46:16.

It was great to see so many teams out with Honiton making up 17 of them out of the 35. Thanks to Garry Parrett and the rest of AVR for another great Woodland Relay.

■ A warm muggy evening on Dartmoor saw 250 runners taking part in the 30th Haytor Heller.

This is an extremely tough six-mile event which starts halfway up Haytor which runners have to ascend before setting off across the moor where they climb Hound Tor at the halfway point before returning to Haytor which they climb once more before a fast descent to the finish below.

Ian Stewart had a great race for Honiton finishing in 46:30 and finishing 13th overall. Howard Bidmead was next having had a good run in 58:25 in 93rd place.

Louise Crisp completed the Honiton team and finished strongly in 61m coming in 116th. The race was won by Aaron Tocknell from Torbay in 41:09.

CHARD

CRRs were involved in two events this weekend. Setting the legs running first was the White Star Running Dorset Invader A Roman Themed Marathon around the Hills and Roman routes of Blandford.

With CRRs Paul Fraser and Bernie Genge heading into battle, this tough off-road marathon was building to be the popular challenge all 250 runners were hoping for.

Striding out was Bernie Genge tackling his 90th marathon. Bernie set a great pace to in the first half of the race and then with the experience behind him he consolidated his position to come across the line in 56/250 and a time of 4h 26m 53s.

Heading out on his 10th Marathon of the Year was Paul Fraser. Building on recent events Paul progressed through the field and enjoying the great atmosphere to cross the line in a time of 5h 54m 06s.

The second event to attract the CRR's runners was the the first inaugural running of the Ribbon Run 10k and 2k fun run, organised by CRR Stalwarts Maria and Chris Wadey in aid of Cancer charities. With this being the first time for all runners the event attracted a strong field from first time racers to experienced, all enjoying the warm weather and well marshalled route.

First out of the starting blocks for the CRRs was Wayne Loveridge. Setting off strong, heading the field he maintained good pressure crossing the line in second place.

Heading out next was CRR Stevie Potter who pushed off from the line with a committed run which paid off with a very strong second place.

Claire Pomeroy was next to show for CRRs with a very strong performance and a marvellous 20th position overall.

Matt Baker kept his recent round of strong races to take the line in 24th position. Chan Chant rounded off the CRRs' race with a strong finish and showing the true spirit of the event.

A big well done for stepping forward in bringing together this event Chris and Maria.

HONITON with Liz Rogers

IT HAS been another busy week at Honiton Golf Club with Stewart Slater, the Club Captain, holding his Away Day (Thursday, July 9th) at Teignmouth Golf Club.

Forty-four club members made the trip to support the Captain and were greeted with beautiful blue skies and spectacular views as they navigated the course. A good fun day was had by all together with a meal and prize giving.

The winning team was Joan Smith, Max Pipe, Keith Lloyd and David Hughes. A coach then transported the Club Captain and other members back to Honiton Golf Club where more fun was the order of the evening.

Next up on Sunday, July 12th was the club captain's Day at Honiton Golf Club. Always one of the main events in the calendar, a full house of 120 players turned out this time in the rain to compete for an excellent prize table provided by the captain.

The rain did not dampen spirits and some excellent golf was played, especially from Paul Richie who clearly likes playing in the rain.

Paul won the main captain's prize with 42 points and a handicap reduction. After the prizegiving, members were treated to an impressive professional golf trick show outside the clubhouse.

Members were then treated to a very enjoyable evening listening to and dancing to an excellent live jazz band. The club captain and social committee used the day as an opportunity to raise funds for the club and in the region of £1500 was collected.

The men's team maintained their winning ways this weekend when they defeated Bigbury Golf Club at home in the Dartmoor League 3-2 in a very close encounter.

Mixed Section

THIS week the Tuesday Mixed ran two competitions with the same format. It was a Foursomes Stableford.

Alongside the mixed Foursomes Stableford competition was the re-arranged Fitch Foursomes competition. This is for married couples only and the format can be quite testing!

However, a happy, albeit wet, afternoon was enjoyed by all and 34 players entered either one or both competitions.

All the winners were married couples who had entered both competitions. The winners were Catherine and Charlie Doherty with 39 points.

In second place were Heather and Peter Clarke with 38 points and in third place were Sue and Paul Ritchie with 37 points. Fourth place went to Elizabeth and Ken Wood who had 36 points and a better back nine than their nearest rivals.

Ro and Chris Poole are this month's organisers and Ro presented the winners with the Fitch Plate and a voucher.

Ladies Section

This week was Lady Captain's Day. Lady Captain, Olwen Eaton, made sure it was a very Irish affair.

All the players had to wear something green for the day but one player, namely Trish Swindell, took it very seriously and turned into an Irish Leprechaun. She received a special prize for her ingenuity!

As for the golf, the winner of the Lady Captain's prize with 37 points was Ann Traying.

In Silver Division, Jane Watts continued her excellent form with 36 points to gain first prize. She was followed by Anne Davies, who achieved 33 points, beating Jackie Seager on countback.

In Bronze 1 Division, Sharon Dacre came in first with 35 points, followed by Jan Hill on 34 points and then Liz Wood on 30 points.

In Bronze 2 Division, Linda McLaughlin was once again in winning form with 32 points. Jan Lloyd was 2nd with 31 points and Sheila Taylor took 3rd place with 26 points.

The best front 9 score was taken by Sue Ritchie with 18 points and the best back 9 score was 19 points achieved by Chris Pearce.

In the 9 hole Stableford competition, Joy Kerr took first place with 14 points.

Bridport spoil the party

■ GREAT EVENT: Merriott's Gruffalos (red and black) and Minions (gold) pose with Bridport (grey) at the end of the tournament

▲ MERRIOTT'S newly formed Under 7s played their first competitive matches recently in a triangular tournament against Bridport at the Recreation Field.

The Gruffalos side were the first to play the visitors in a ten-minute each way five-a-side game.

Bridport took an early lead, but two goals just before the break saw Merriott go ahead; Bridport struck twice in the second half to win 3-2.

The Gruffalos then played Merriott's other team, the Minions, who scored two quick goals and looked like they might have an easy win.

But the Gruffalos dug in and reduced the arrears early in the second half, only for the Minions to score a late goal to win 3-1.

It was all to play for in the final game with Bridport and the Minions having won a game each, but Bridport won through after scoring three first half goals.

They added a fourth before Merriott scored a consolation, and then rounded off with a fifth. The game, played in the right spirit, showed great sportsmanship by all three teams.

Expertly officiated and organised, the sides entertained a large crowd of spectators who were treated to a wonderful morning's entertainment.

All players received a medal for their efforts at the end of the tournament.

Bridport Youth would like to thank Merriott Youth for the invitation and their wonderful hospitality.

All change at the top

IAN Burns is the new man at the helm of Axminster Town FC after the sudden departure of Richard Pears, who was only appointed as the Tigers' manager at the end of May.

The managerial go-round started last week, and club chairman Ray Self said: "Following a meeting last Tuesday the committee took the decision to ask Richard Pears to step down from his role as first team manager."

"The committee would like to stress that the decision had nothing to do with Richard either as a person, coach and manager."

"Indeed, Richard was well liked and respected by everyone at the club."

"The difficult decision taken by the committee was on the basis that they felt that the club was not ready to move forward as quickly as Richard was clearly looking to do and that we would not be able to meet his ambitions as manager."

"The club would like to thank Richard and the players he brought in for their hard work and commitment to the club during the time they have been with us."

"The club is not prepared to make any further statement on this matter and would ask that this can now be brought to a close."

"This we feel is in the best interest of the club, Richard and the players involved to allow everyone to move on."

Having moved in to a brand new, state-of-the-art ground in spring, The Tigers are eager to look ahead without distractions.

Mr Self and his fellow committee members acted quickly to appoint former Chard Town FC boss Ian Burns as the new boss.

Mr Self said: "He observed last Friday's friendly but was not in charge. He will take training on Tuesday and be in charge for this Friday against Tiverton."

"I've known him for some time and he comes highly recommended by many people and is UEFA B qualified coach."
